

St Ursula's Convent School A Humanities College and Teaching School

History Teacher – Sept 2023 (or as soon as possible after) 1 Term (poss extension)

The governors seek to appoint an enthusiastic, innovative and committed teacher of History to help the Head of Department lead and further develop this highly successful department. You will have excellent leadership skills and you will be able to motivate, inspire and communicate outstanding practice. This is a brilliant opportunity for a well-qualified, highly motivated professional who is an outstanding classroom practitioner.

We are seeking a practitioner with the drive, commitment and passion for developing high quality learning and teaching that will enthuse young people and ensure continued outstanding results. Department results are excellent and the successful applicant will have the opportunity to work in a well-equipped, forward thinking, and dynamic environment.

For the right candidate there is also the potential for the role to include teaching and learning responsibilities within the department.

The successful candidate will:

- Join a forward-looking, high achieving school
- Contribute to the wider improvement of the school.
- Be a driven and professional character that is committed to their students as well as their colleagues.

What we can offer you:

- Constant feedback outlines that the school is welcoming, friendly and supportive.
- A culture of distributed leadership.
- Opportunities and encouragement to develop both personally and professionally.
- You can ensure that your well-being is a high priority.
- A fantastic location with excellent transport links including the DLR, Elizabeth line and main line railways

St Ursula's Convent School is an outstanding school where:

- It is a pleasure to teach
- Students are ambitious and aspire to be the very best
- All staff have exceptionally high standards and expectations
- Senior Leaders and all teachers are passionate about making a difference
- Governors are strongly supportive of the school.

St Ursula's is an outstanding, oversubscribed Catholic girl's school with a reputation for excellence. We are strongly committed to the ongoing professional development of all staff. We are committed to safeguarding and protecting the wellbeing of children and young people and expect all staff to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS is required for all successful applicants.

Full details including our teaching staff application form can be found on the school website www.stursulas.com. Completed applications and / or any enquires should be sent to Diane Williams, School Business Manager recruitment@stursulas.com. Please note that we are only able to accept fully completed school application forms, and stand-alone CVs will not be considered.

Suitable candidates may be interviewed on receipt of application.
