

St Ursula's Convent

Teacher of Food Technology Required for September 2024

The Governors of St Ursula's Convent School invite applications from highly motivated, inspirational and outstanding teachers for the post of Teacher of Food Technology. The start date is 1 September 2024.

The successful candidate will be responsible for strategically leading and delivering the curriculum, and have responsibility for the overall effectiveness in providing the highest quality of Food Technology education for students. They will need to be able to teach GCSE Food Technology to KS3 and KS4. This role is not suitable for an NQT.

We are looking for an inspirational teacher who:

- Has commitment to and an understanding of education
- Has experience in raising standards
- Has excellent communication, organisational and interpersonal skills
- Is an outstanding teacher

The successful candidate will:

- Join a forward-looking, high achieving school
- Contribute to the wider improvement of the school.
- Be a driven and professional character that is committed to your students as well as your colleagues.
- Be joining a supportive department, who like to work on the same wavelength.

In return, the school can offer a good working environment with opportunities and encouragement to develop both personally and professionally. Staff wellbeing is a high priority. We are based in a fantastic location with excellent transport links including the DLR, Elizabeth line and main line railways.

At St Ursula's Convent School students are ambitious and aspire to be the very best; staff have exceptionally high standards and expectations; Senior Leaders and all teachers are passionate about making a difference; Governors are strongly supportive of the school.

St Ursula's Convent School is committed to safeguarding and protecting the wellbeing of children and young people and expect all staff to share this commitment. An enhanced DBS is required for all successful applicants.
